

BHC Scientific Meeting

Saturday 6th October 2018

Auditorium 5; Faculteit Geneeskunde UZ Brussel

Laarbeeklaan 101, 1090 Brussels

9h00-9h30: Welcome Coffee

9h30-10h30: Session 1

Moderators: Hilde Heuten (UZA) and Alexandre Persu (UCLouvain)

9h30-9h45:

Caiguo Yu et al. (KU Leuven). Heart Rate Variability and Peripheral Nerve Conduction Velocity in relation to environmental exposure to Lead.

9h45-10h00:

Ine Mahieu et al. (UGent). Cardiac Autonomic Neuropathy in patients with Type 1 Diabetes: prevalence, determinants and consequences.

10h00-10h15:

Annie Saint-Remy et al. (ULg). What can we learn from a representative population screening for hypertension?

10h15-10h30:

Laura Légat et al. (VUB). AT1 receptor mediated inhibitory modulation of the baroreflex by Ang II involves NO dependent local GABA release in the nucleus tractus solitarii of normotensive rats.

10h30-11h00: Coffee break

11h00-12h15: Session 2

Moderators: Tine De Backer (UGent) and Danny Schoors (VUB)

11h00-11h15:

Coralie Georges et al. (UCLouvain). Interaction of psychological profile, blood pressure level and drug adherence in hypertensive patients seen in an Academic Hospital.

11h15-11h30:

Amin Hossein et al. (ULB). Kino-cardiography: seismo- and ballisto-cardiography revisited for cardiac contractility wearable monitoring

11h30-11h45:

Marco Pappaccogli et al. (UCLouvain). European Fibromuscular Dysplasia Registry and Belgian Multicentric cohort (BEL-FMD): results of the first 609 patients.

11h45-12h15: Lecture

Jean-Marie Krzesinski (ULg)

Blood pressure control in CKD patients: the lower the better?

12h15-12h30:

Conclusions/wrap-up: Tine De Backer (UGent)